

I think that the result of a single corporation owning television channels, newspapers, and stations on the radio, will not be in the best interest of the public. People need the diversity. It gives the multiple companies the competition that they strive off of. without competitive companies everything would be dull and there that would decrease the number of consumers supporting the companies. I request that the laws limiting ownership should remain as they are.